“Millions Now Living Will Never Die” Campaign
(1919-1925)

The following are actually not clippings but the full page which contained either an ad or a news article related to what was called the “Millions” campaign. This occurred during the era of Judge J. F. Rutherford, second president of the Watchtower Society. These pages are all at various sizes so you will need to adjust the magnification as you read them.

Most of these are paid advertisements which the Bible Students put in the local newspapers to invite people to hear the lecture. There are a couple of news articles also included which illustrate how the media reported the “Millions” campaign.

RUTHERFORD AT AUDITORIUM SAYS WORLD HAS ENDED

Pastor Russell's Successor Declares New Age Has Begun and Death Will Soon Cease

Judge J. F. Rutherford, president of the International Bible Students' Association, and successor of the late Pastor Russell, spoke here last night in the Municipal auditorium to an audience that packed the house to the doors. For nearly two hours he was accorded the closest attention, as he expounded the Bible prophecies which he explained to now be in course of fulfillment. The world war and the Bolshevist movement which has followed it he declared to be clearly portrayed in the Old Testament prophecies.

With seven others, also officers and leaders of the International Bible Students' Association, Judge Rutherford was sentenced last June in Brooklyn, New York, to twenty years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Georgia, for having published "The Finished Mystery," a Bible commentary on the prophecies of Revelation and Ezekiel, certain passages of which were declared to be in conflict with the Espionage act, although it was claimed by the defense that the book was written in accordance with instructions left by Pastor Russell before his death and was in the printer's hands before the espionage law was passed by Congress, and before this country entered the war. It was also claimed in behalf of the defendants that opposition to "The Finished Mystery" had been instigated by the clergy, who had anathematized toward it on purely religious grounds. Rutherford and his seven associates were released on bail in March after spending nine months in the Atlanta penitentiary. The case is now pending in the circuit court of appeals.

THE END OF THE WORLD.

The speaker in part said: For nineteen centuries students of Divine prophecy have looked for the world to end. To now state positively that that event has occurred is rather startling in view of what has been taught in the past. I expect many clergymen to take issue with me on this question, for the reason that they have viewed it from a different standpoint. The great John Calvin taught that upon the happening of this momentous event, Jesus would return to earth, that he would sit upon a cloud, which cloud would emit fire, and which fire would totally destroy everything on earth except the wicked, and that the wicked would be provided with immortal bodies so that their torture might be eternal. Many clergymen, believing that Calvin was a profound Bible student, have followed his line of thought and have taught what he taught.

The more modern clergymen differ in their views, some saying that if the world ever ends at all, that event is so many years distant in the future that it is not worth while to consider it. The majority insist that the present order will continue forever. The most of Christian people, however, have been taught that when the world ends, the earth will be destroyed.

THE EARTH ABIDES FOREVER.

The only method of determining a question of this kind is from the Bible itself, and the Scriptures plainly teach: "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited." "The earth abideth forever." (Isaiah 45:18, Eccl. 1:4.) There is a wide distinction between the words "world" and "earth." The word "world," as generally used in the Scriptures, has no reference to the material globe, but means the condition of society, or the order of things prevailing during a stated period of time. St. Peter describes the first world, which endured from Adam to the flood, and which was destroyed by water. The second world began at the time of the flood, and the Apostle states that it is to be destroyed; the Apostle adding that it will be destroyed by fire. In biblical symbolism, fire is a symbol of destruction. It does not necessarily mean literal fire, but a fiery time of trouble, destroying the old order of things and bringing in the new.

THE TIME OF THE END.

The Divine mind, foreknowing the end from the beginning, foretold the principal events that have happened, his prophecies of old recorded these events, and their sayings we call prophecy. Prophecy is in fact the history of the world written in advance. The student of prophecy is charged to interpret it in the light of history. For instance, Jehovah caused the prophet Daniel to record in brief the history of the world from the beginning of the Gentile dominion until the coming of Messiah's Kingdom. Daniel said: "I heard but I understood not." In other words, he was an instrument in Jehovah's hands. God told him at that time to seal up the words of the prophecy until "the time of the end," and stated that a proof that would mark the time of the end would be the great running to and fro in the earth and an increase of knowledge. For the past 50 years especially, man has witnessed the marvellous development of rapid transit by steam, electricity and other motive power, and the wonderful increase of knowledge in various lines, all of which mark the fulfillment of the prophecy spoken by Daniel.

THE NEW WORLD.

Our purpose in this argument is to prove by competent testimony that the old world, meaning the old order of things, has come to an end and is passing away, that the new world and new order of things is being inaugurated, that the old world has been a time in which wrong-doing, oppression and suffering predominated, that the new order will gradually reverse this condition and will ultimately establish peace universal, happiness universal, and the blessings of life everlasting to all who will render themselves in obedience to the righteous laws of the new order. If the evidence does establish such as true, then it ought to be a great anchor of hope to mankind in this hour of stress. Our purpose in presenting this argument is to bring hope to the hearts of a distressed people.

GENTILE TIMES.

The Jews were God's chosen people for many centuries, and He dealt with them to the exclusion of all others. He used them to picture or foreshadow other events to transpire on a far greater scale. He announced that his favor would be shown to the Gentiles and that this period should be one of seven symbolic times. A "time" in the Scripture is 360 years; and seven of these would be 2520 years, which mark the length of the Gentile dominion. This period had its beginning when Nebuchadnezzar, by Jehovah's permission, established the first universal Gentile government, 606 B. C. Necessarily then, this period ended in the fall of 1914. A. D. Technically speaking, with reference to time, the old world ended at that date and the old order began to rapidly degenerate, disintegrate.

We now submit a number of Scriptural reasons in proof of the point that the old world or order has ended. Every man who believes in God and who believes the Bible, and that Jesus is the Son of God and that he spoke with authority, must be convinced from this testimony that the old world has ended and that a new one is beginning. Of course higher critics and teachers of evolution concerning man will not believe. But we submit the testimony of Jesus as the best of all witnesses, and his is corroborated by the testimony of others. Five days before his crucifixion his disciples asked him privately and asked for this question: "Tell us, what shall be the sign of the end of the world?" (Matthew 24:3.)

THE WORLD WAR.

We have observed that the Gentile times ended in 1914. In referring to that time, Jesus said: "The nations were angry, and thy wrath is come." Exactly on time, namely, in the autumn season of 1914, the great world-war began.

When the question was propounded to the Master by his disciples, he answered it, but his answer could not be fully understood until the events would transpire, for two reasons: First, he spoke in prophetic language and hence it could not be fully understood until fulfilled, and second, no one could have a clear understanding of it until after they had received spiritual discernment. But now, in the light of history, any reverential student of the Lord's Word can understand and appreciate His answers. First, He said:

"Then said Jesus unto them: 'Nation shall arise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be famines and pestilences and earthquakes in diverse places, all these are the beginning of sorrows.' Most of the nations of Europe and America call themselves 'Christian nations,' and as a whole these nations are designated as 'Christendom.' Notwithstanding each nation claiming to be followers of the Prince of Peace, the past four years has witnessed the rising of these nations against each other, kingdom against kingdom, Catholic against Catholic, Protestant against Protestant, and the past four years have marked the bloodiest conflict the world has ever known. According to the New York Herald, the earth's population is 1,691,751,000. The total population of all the neutral countries of the earth amounted to less than 200,000,000. In other words, practically the whole world was involved, either directly or indirectly, in this great war. Such an event was never before recorded in history. This world-conflict conclusively establishes the first proof given by Jesus by which we could determine that we had reached the end of the old world, or the old order.

JEWS TO PALESTINE.

The time came when the Jews, God's chosen people, were cast off from His favor. And as further answer to the question as to when the world would end, Jesus said concerning the Jews: "They shall be trodden down of the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Seeing, then, that the Gentile times ended in 1914, we should expect some marked evidence of God's favor returning to the Jews about that time. Both Jew and Gentile have looked for the return of the Jew to Palestine to mark the end of the old world and the coming of Messiah's Kingdom. Nathan, the grand old man of American Jewry, in a speech at Cooper Union, New York, delivered in 1915 after the beginning of the world-war, said: "We are living in the age when we are about to realize the two-thousand-year-old hope of the Jewish people, and I am especially glad that we are witnessing the spectacle of the whole world applauding and approving and supporting our great purpose to re-establish the Jewish people on their own soil."

REVIVING HOPES.

Jesus likened the Jewish nation to a fig tree, saying that "when the buds begin to put forth its buds, you know that the summer is nigh, even at the door." In corroboration of this, the prophet of Jehovah (Jeremiah 16:18-19) shows that when the Jews in establishing their Gentile Kingdom, Nathan, the grand old man of American Jewry, in a speech at Cooper Union, New York, delivered in 1915 after the beginning of the world-war, said: "We are living in the age when we are about to realize the two-thousand-year-old hope of the Jewish people, and I am especially glad that we are witnessing the spectacle of the whole world applauding and approving and supporting our great purpose to re-establish the Jewish people on their own soil."

When Jerusalem fell into the hands of the British army, this, together with the great influx of Jews to Palestine, caused a few clergymen to meet in London and issue a manifesto, which was published throughout the world, to the effect that the return of the Jew to Palestine indicates the near establishment of the Lord's kingdom and the end of the world.

An enterprising reporter of the Chicago Herald interviewed a large number of clergymen on the question, almost all of whom scoffed at the thought. Many of them said, "I feel the present war has no more bearing on the second coming of Christ than other wars and revolutions have had." In other words, "things continue as they were from the beginning."

"Why is this so? Why is it the clergymen this scoff?" many ask. And the Apostle Peter answers: "That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior; knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own desires, and saying: 'Where is the promise of his presence (and the end of the world) for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation. For of this they willingly are ignorant.'"

OTHER SIGNS.

As further proof, Jesus said the true and the false Christian should be separated in the churches side by side and that in the closing days of this world the true would be gathered together unto the Lord and the others would be bound in a church of darkness, without regard to truth. He designated this work in the closing of the world as a "harvest," and then plainly said, "The harvest is the end of the world." We now see a clear fulfillment of this, in that true workers of the Lord are gathering themselves together, discarding former creed fences, and study the Bible and seek to do the Lord's will. Whereas the church nominal unites as to the end of the world, Jesus said: "That the war would be accompanied by famine and pestilence. It is a matter of public knowledge, frequently announced by the public press, that the nations of Europe are face to face with carried to every nation on earth. The clergyman used to tell us that all the world must be converted and brought into the church and then the end would come. But that is not what Jesus said. He stated that the testimony would be given as a witness to the world, and then the end would come.

In further reply to the disciples' query Jesus said: "As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be at the end of the world." He then added in substance that the people gave little heed to Noah's proclamation of the end of that world. Again he said that the day would come on the people as a thief in the night—suddenly, quietly.

For 120 years Noah told the people the world that then was would end, and they scoffed at Noah and mocked at him. At the present time of distress, and when the people greatly need comfort, the clergy as a class not only fail to tell the people the meaning of this terrible trouble—that the world has ended and the Lord's kingdom is at hand—but they treat the subject with silent contempt and scoff at any one who dares discuss it publicly. Of course, there are some exceptions to this rule; but they are very few.

MANIFESTO IN LONDON.

When Jerusalem fell into the hands of the British army, this, together with the great influx of Jews to Palestine, caused a few clergymen to meet in London and issue a manifesto, which was published throughout the world, to the effect that the return of the Jew to Palestine indicates the near establishment of the Lord's kingdom and the end of the world.

heavens shall be shaken." In Revelation, he gives us the key to these symbols; the sun representing the gospel of Jesus Christ; the moon picturing the Mosaic law dispensation, and the stars the great ecclesiastical teachers. How wonderfully this is fulfilled now! The gospel of Messiah's kingdom means that Jesus Christ gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified to all in due time; that during the gospel age the church is selected, and thereafter the benefit of Christ's famine and would starve were it not for the food produced in America and transported to them. Under large headlines the Literary Digest prints: "The World Starving to Death. The great spectre of famine is stalking through the earth and there is hardly a land in which its dread presence is not felt. A dangerous famine is creeping across Europe." That the past twelve months has witnessed a great pestilence in the earth none will attempt to gainsay. The total casualties of four years of war number approximately nine million victims. The devastating pestilence known as influenza that swept the earth during the past year claimed upwards of twelve millions of victims, and scientists throughout the earth agree that an even greater pestilence now threatens mankind. The "flu" wasn't confined wholly to the countries engaged in the war, even Eskimo tribes and the Hottentots in the Torrid Zone fell victims to this dread disease.

DISTRESS OF NATIONS.

Continuing, Jesus said that at the end of the world there would be "upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring, and men's hearts failing them for fear." Who doubts the fulfillment of this Scripture in this very hour? Commenting on the awful time through which we are passing, President Wilson before Congress said: "These are days of great perplexity, when a great cloud hangs over the greater part of the world. It seems as if great, blind material forces have been released which had for long been held in leash and restraint."

Everywhere government officials are perplexed, financiers are in perplexity, business men are in perplexity; and generally men's hearts are failing them for fear as they face the situation.

REVOLUTION.

In the Scriptures, the term earthquake is used as the symbol of revolution. Jesus stated that revolution would follow the war as surely as the dawn follows the night, and that the world had ended. All are familiar with the fearful revolution that is afflicting Russia. The public press almost daily announces that this dread condition threatens all European countries.

Revolutions are of two kinds: Bloody and bloodless. Some of the European countries have already witnessed the former. In North Dakota we have an example of the latter; a revolution changing the form or order of things without violence. In a recent issue of The Literary Digest, the North Dakota editor writes: "If we had not 3 percent of the clergymen in the world today preach this gospel, truly the sun is darkened. Recently the New York American published a report of a great meeting at Carnegie hall, composed of Catholic and Protestant clergymen and Jewish rabbis. In that whole conference the name of Jesus, the great Rock of the Gospel, was not mentioned, because He could not well be referred to as the Redeemer without offending the Jewish rabbis. Hence others preferred to disregard the name of Jesus. In a speech, as quoted in saying: 'If we who believe in a God (mark, there is no reference to Jesus) cannot forget our differences and our difficulties in the face of the world hatred, what hope can there be?'"

The time is coming for Protestant, Catholic, Jew and Gentile to co-operate to the end that every child may have at least an intimation of his moral and religious inheritance. The sacrifice of animals under the Jewish dispensation foreshadowed the great sacrifice of Jesus, which clergymen generally teach in these last days of the world, because they say we are creatures of evolution and have no need of the blood of Jesus. As ecclesiastical stars, their profession is above all others; but the great majority have fallen from the exalted position of Christians. Jesus and Him crucified are taken their part in the common politics of the world, as Jesus said it would be at the end.

The best man on earth, the one who holds the highest position before God, is the honest preacher of the gospel. On the contrary, the man who poses as a teacher of the Divine Word and then leads people into error, and turns them away from the Bible is a great menace to society.

Jesus stated as a further evidence of the end of the world that the rapid conversion of Christians to a lowly humble and faithful in following Him would be persecuted because of their faithful devotion to Him and His cause. (Luke 21:15-18.) The public is well informed because they have seen the persecution of Christians during the past twelve months. For the encouragement of Christians who would be called upon to endure such persecution, Jesus said: "And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, lift up your heads, for your deliverance is drawing nigh." (Luke 21:28.)

FAMINE AND PESTILENCES.

Further answering the question as to the end of the world, Jesus said: "That the war would be accompanied by famine and pestilence. It is a matter of public knowledge, frequently announced by the public press, that the nations of Europe are face to face with famine and would starve were it not for the food produced in America and transported to them. Under large headlines the Literary Digest prints: "The World Starving to Death. FAMINE AND PESTILENCES.

Further answering the question as to the end of the world, Jesus said: "That the war would be accompanied by famine and pestilence. It is a matter of public knowledge, frequently announced by the public press, that the nations of Europe are face to face with his disciples to pray: "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is done in heaven." He pointed out that the kingdom will mark the time of the beginning of the blessing for mankind. Furthermore, Jesus said: "My kingdom is not of this world" (not of the old world that is just now passing away). Thus he shows that the time for the blessing of mankind is during the incoming or new order of things. An understanding of the Divine plan shows what a wonderful provision God has made for the blessing of man with life, liberty and happiness. All mankind sprang from Adam, who was created perfect, and had a perfect home in Eden. Because of his violation of God's law, he lost the right to eternal life; the right to complete happiness, and the right to full liberty. God promised Abraham: "In thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." The Apostle shows that this "seed of promise" is the Christ, the Messiah, composed of Jesus and the members of His body designated as the church, which means the class that has been called out from the world, selected, tried and made fit during the Gospel Age. Jesus and the members of His body are the "seed of promise," and they are about to depart from the earth: "I go to prepare a place for you, and I will come again and receive you unto myself." These thus united the Scriptures designate as the "royal priesthood," family of heaven (1 Pet. 2:9-10), and that they shall reign with Christ during his Millennial period (Revelations 20:4) and the purpose of his kingdom will be to restore and bless mankind. At that time the Apostle says: "Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord, and God shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached unto you, whom the heavens must retain until the times of the restitution of all things which God has spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began." (Acts 3:19-21.)

Restitution or restoration means to restore that which was lost during the disobedience of Adam, namely, the right to life, liberty, and happiness. And the beginning of this restorative work must be at the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom. It follows, then, that many who are living at this time will see that kingdom established. Jesus said: "This generation (meaning those now on earth) shall not pass away until all these things be fulfilled."

The reign of Christ is for the very purpose of destroying death by restoring mankind to the state of perfection. As the Apostle puts it: "He shall reign until he has destroyed all enemies, and the last enemy to be destroyed is death."

ONE PAIR CHANCE.

Three thousand years ago Jehovah foretold the trouble through which the earth is now passing. He said: "Wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy (the fiery time of trouble). For I will gather to me all nations, and I will have them as my people, and they shall call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent" (Zephaniah 3:8-9).

Why turn a pure message to the people unless they are to profit by it? Again, the Lord, through his prophet, declared: "And it shall come to pass that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and be destroyed, and the third part shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried; they shall call on my name, and I will answer them, I will say, I am my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God." (Zephaniah 1:3-4.)

No one could accept the blessings of life and better blessings without therewith an opportunity, and he must have knowledge before this opportunity can come to him. The Apostle says: "There is one God, and one mediator, between God and men, the man Jesus Christ, who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." (1 Tim. 2:5-6.) The due time for mankind to begin to receive this testimony is when Messiah's Kingdom is established, and I will have them as my people, and they shall call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent" (Zephaniah 3:8-9).

These Scriptures have never before been applicable. They must apply at some time. They could not apply until the Lord had offered restitution blessings to mankind. They cannot be offered until his kingdom is established. The kingdom of heaven is at hand. The time to offer them is almost here. Then it follows that surely Jesus spoke that when that offer is made that the man who hears, believes and obeys, shall live and shall not die. Otherwise these Scriptures are made void.

The Apostle says: "There is one God, and one mediator, between God and men, the man Jesus Christ, who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." (1 Tim. 2:5-6.) The due time for mankind to begin to receive this testimony is when Messiah's Kingdom is established, and I will have them as my people, and they shall call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent" (Zephaniah 3:8-9).

No one could accept the blessings of life and better blessings without therewith an opportunity, and he must have knowledge before this opportunity can come to him. ALL IN THEIR GRAVES SHALL COME FORTH.

Millions have died in the great world war. Many are living today whose hearts are made sad because of the loss of their loved ones. Millions have died from disease, and pestilence. Truly the poet has said:

"The earth is old with centuries, But for this she hangs not her head; Closer to her heart the sorrow lies; She holds so many dead."

But hope springs into the heart of one who believes the Lord's word, when he hears the Master's sweet message: "Mark ye not all that are in their graves shall come forth." The very purpose of bringing them forth is to give them a fair and impartial trial for life.

The Prophet Job gives a wonderful picture of the restoration of man. There are many old and decrepit and crippled and deformed ones in the world. There are many who are from the great war, and who are there for them? Mark the prophetic words: "He keepeth back the soul from the grave, and his life from perishing by the sword. He is at hand to pray with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain." (Thus describing the sick and afflicted.) "So that his life abhorred bread and his soul his uprightness; then he (the Lord) is gracious unto him, and said: 'I will restore him from going down into the pit; I have found a ransom. His flesh shall be fresher than a child's; he shall return to days of his youth. He shall pray for those who hate him, he shall be favorable unto him, and he shall see (discern) his face with joy, for he will render unto him his righteousness.'" (Job 33:18-26.) Thus the Lord restores the old man will be restored to the hope of resurrection, and how restoration blessings will bring all who are obedient to the laws to the state of perfection.

These Scriptures must have a fulfillment, and if this is the correct interpretation, then will the clergymen tell the people what they do mean? We rejoice in the fact that the kingdom of the Lord is at hand. The old order is passing away forever, and the new order is coming in.

PERSECUTIONS—WHY? Because we have taught these beautiful and wonderful truths that Jesus taught, because we have pointed to the fact that the present unrighteous order is passing away; because we have shown that Christendom has been and is a failure; because we show from the Scriptures that there is a general resurrection for all the dead and a prime of resurrection blessings near at hand for mankind, we have been called in question, misrepresented and maligned before the people, persecuted by those who profess to be Christians. We have no ill feeling, however, against our persecutors, realizing that the Scriptures state, "all in Christ, Jesus who will live godly shall suffer persecution." Jesus said: "Whoever will save his life shall lose it, and whoever will lose his life shall save it. For this world is not our home, but we are here to do the Father's will." (John 15:18.)

We count it a great privilege to be permitted to suffer because of loyalty to righteousness and to be placed in the category

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE"

--Judge Rutherford

In a Free Lecture in the Auditorium Theater Sunday afternoon it will be conclusively proven by many Bible prophecies which have been fulfilled during the past four years, and from many others still in course of fulfillment, that thousands now living in this city will never die.

"In this instance do not deceive yourself into believing that 'where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise,' because life everlasting on this earth as a perfect human being will depend upon the individual knowledge and understanding of, and acquiescence in, the rules of conduct that are to govern the world in its reconstruction now in progress and ever after."

In a startling and comforting lecture, "Millions Now Living Will Never Die," Judge Rutherford offers a reasonable and satisfying solution of the many questions raised by the conflicting claims of orthodox creeds. Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Conan Doyle, Christian Science practitioners and the various faith healing sects. No matter what your present ideas on this great question may be, you should hear

Quija Boards Blamed for Ills of Students

ANN ARBOR (Mich.), January 29. — "Ordnance boards are becoming more plentiful in the fraternities and society houses and on the part of independent students than bullet or prayer books and more frequently consulted," declared a member of the faculty of the University of Western Michigan, commenting on a report he had just received that two young women in his class had been obliged to leave school and place themselves in the hands of nerve specialists because of "over-tension in the ordnance boards."

Dr. Warren Forsthe, head of the university health service, admitted that there had been a great influx of nervous students appearing lately for treatment.

One city nerve specialist said he had treated university students in extreme nervousness and that their difficulty seemed to have been caused by too close association with the ouija board and an gnostic belief in its wondrous powers.

If the above writing is correct, then it is further proof that the entire population of the earth is menaced by vain words and like paraphernalia. This tutelage is due chiefly to lack of knowledge. The people should have the entire truth on the subject, and that is my only purpose in speaking on it.

FAVORABLY KNOWN IN ALL
CAPITAL CITIES OF EUROPE

During the past ten years Judge Rutherford has lectured in nearly every large city in Europe and America on "Where Are the Dead?" and his lectures on "Millions Now Living Will Never Die" and "Talking With the Dead" are outgrowths of that lecture, made possible and necessary by the fulfillment of certain prophecies during and since the war, and as messages of comfort to the many millions bereaved by the enormous casualties in the World War and subsequent epidemics.

TALKING WITH THE DEAD

Can the Living Talk with the Dead?

Statements by Justice Rothstein

Can the living talk with the dead? Sir Conan Doyle, his colleagues, many distinguished doctors and others answer yes. The twenty-four prophets of Christ, the Lord Jesus and His twelve Apostles, according to the inspired testimony set forth in the Bible, thrice conversed with the

For Conan Doyle and his colleagues say the word is 'immortal'—there is no death; hence the dead are able to communicate with the living. Conan said the same thing; and Jesus said Satan is a liar; and that his statement was the beginning of lies. (John 8:44.) Satan is the enemy of the human race. Jesus is the Savior of the world, and through Him alone can man get life everlasting. www.404.com/with/evangelist/

So Satan tries and he collapses (claim that they have voices, receive information through coa boards, have flying, etc., and that they contain lots of same unclean power). This we do not dispute. The Bible explains this: this power is not exercised by the spirit of dead men, but by demons—fallen angels, or foul spirits—who are jealousists (it's Job's day and when God redeemed in the darkness and the earth. (See 2 Peter 2:4; 1 Peter 1:12-20; Job 6). These demons have exercised their power since the time of the flood until the present time on instrumentality of mediocrity. The day of this judgment is now here, hence they exercise greater power and are taking advantage of a gilestocracy world to aid Satan in carrying out his first lie—"There is no death."

4. So God's boys and girls distinguished themselves have been and are being deceived by the demons, because they believe and learn the doctrine of immortality of the soul, which is supported by nothing except Satan's falsehood. (Genesis 3:1.) Immortality is promised as a great reward to those who faithfully follow Jesus, even unto death. (1 Corinthians 15:51-53.) The dead are unconscious; they know not anything; they cannot think, sense, hear, speak or do anything whatever. (See Parables, 6:1, 2, 5-17, 40:4; Interpretation, 9:8, 9.) To be deceived, it would be impossible for them to communicate with the living.

Nothing is more plainly taught in the Scriptures than the resurrection of the dead — e. g., that in the first all the dead shall be awakened and given a trial for life. Such positively disproves that the dead are conscious and are able to communicate with the living, because the resurrection of the dead

These so-called communications from the dead are in no wise beneficial to man. The writings are never comforting or uplifting, but, on the contrary, they are often vicious and vile and lead men into error. Great numbers of men are being made insane by the influence of these impostors. Satan and the other demons are thus blinding and defrauding mankind in order to turn their minds away from the great blessings God has in store for them.

This so-called science of communicating with the dead is nothing but demonism, or spiritism and is a menace to the welfare of mankind, the overwhelming proof of which is set forth in my new book, "Talking With the Dead."

CONFESSES BRUTAL MURDER OF SIX-YEAR-OLD GIRL

Philadelphia And Bucks Co Fight For Legal Possession Of Slayer

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 27.—With the finding of the body of six-year-old Lillian Gilmore early last night in the icy waters of Neesham creek, near Croydon, Pa., a legal battle today developed between Philadelphia and Bucks counties for possession of the body of the child.

Lillian's body was recovered under dramatic circumstances. Late yesterday Morgan, under a constant fire of questions, showed signs of abandoning his attitude of stolid indifference. Four-year-old Dorothy Gilmore, sister of the dead child, who was also in Morgan's motor car on the fatal trip Saturday, was brought into his cell in an effort to break him. Finally he nonchalantly remarked to a police sergeant: "Well, here goes; the worst I can get is the electric chair."

Immediately following his confession of the crime, Morgan was placed in a police automobile first to the vacant lot in Torresdale, where he said he first attacked the child, then northward to the vicinity of Croydon. Morgan repeatedly asked to be allowed to take the wheel, "to find the park easier," but such requests were curtly refused by the detectives.

As the car moved slowly into the murky shadows near Neesham creek, Morgan was pelted with questions as to details of the crime.

"I had to put the kid somewhere," he replied to one question as to why he selected such a spot, "she cried after I attacked her and I had to get rid of the body. Anybody got a cigarette?"

His request was ignored. Stumbling out of the car, Morgan was "put" along until the bank of the creek was reached. With flash lights the party explored the place, until Morgan suddenly remarked: "There," pointing to a hole in the earth. A short search revealed the body of the murdered child, horribly beaten and bruised and covered with blood.

On the return to the Trenton and Camden police station, a numb, breathless Morgan, but was dispersed by the police with drawn night sticks.

Today efforts are being made in the county to reach Morgan to trial. Director of Public Safety Corbett, of this city, claims Morgan's confession showing the child died after the first attack places the crime in the city limits.

The Bucks county attorney claims the finding of the body at Croydon gives them jurisdiction in the case.

SAYS—NOW STIFF JOINTS MUST GO!

New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases

Yes: It's true—the world grows greener.

All you have to do nowadays to limber up that stiff, knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Such rub the evening newspaper and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the big feast you used to leap when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried this new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Limbers: They call this wonder-working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joints, reduce the swelling Joint Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, staineless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the limbs limbered out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint Ease is for both-rheumatic joints, whether in knee, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale is immense.

Wimmer-Arnold, a big supply of it and druggists everywhere report a big demand.

HERE ARE FACTS OF VALUE IN FRAMING INCOME TAX RET'RN

Within certain limitations interest and taxes paid through the taxable year may be deducted from gross income. Such items include interest upon a personal loan and taxes on a dwelling, as well as interest on business debts and taxes upon business property. The Federal income tax, however, may not be deducted, nor may there be included any special assessments for local benefits tending to improve the value of the property, such as paving or draining, or assessments since they are, in fact, the cost of a permanent improvement.

Obligations of the United States issued prior to September 8, 1917, are wholly exempt from the Federal income tax. Hence interest, paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred, or continued to purchase or carry such obligations is not an allowable deduction from gross income.

Personal indebtedness includes any money borrowed to defray personal expenses, clothing, food, etc.—but also money borrowed for the purchase of real estate. If a person uses money secured by a loan or mortgage on his home, the amount of interest paid on such indebtedness may be deducted. Moreover, interest paid by the taxpayer on a mortgage upon real estate of which he is the legal or equitable owner, even though the taxpayer is not directly liable upon the loan or note secured by such mortgage, may be deducted as interest on his indebtedness.

JERSEY MAN BUYS "HAREM" FOR $100

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Frank Menassa, twenty-five years old, of Homestead, N. J., is looking for the stranger from whom he bought a harem of six pretty girls and for which he paid $100 in cash.

Frank was seated in a trailer car at Hoboken when a nice-looking stranger spoke to him and called his attention to two pretty girls whom he said were part of his harem. He had four more at an address at No. 45 11th street, Homestead, he explained, and that he was forced to leave them because he was called away on a trip to the West.

Would Frank buy them? Frank would and did. He handed over $100. As he did so he noticed that the two girls across the way were leaving the car. The stranger assured him that they were not running away; that they were simply mad because they had left their seats behind. Frank believed and exulted in his purchase until he tried to find No. 45 11th street. There was no house within sight. Frank now believes he was flummoxed.

According to the statistics presented by Dr. Seward, the average received by ministers is $570 a year, by street cleaners, $642 and by stable hands, $682.

"World's Judgment Day at Hand-- millions now living will never die"

This evil world (the unrighteous order of rulership) is rapidly passing away and is now actually in the throes of its final struggle. The present clanking of self-seeking interests are only evidences of the vain endeavors of the old evil world to perpetuate itself in its old iniquitous way.

The old world's greatest statesman regarding of their denunciations doctors, whether Jew or Gentile, recognize and admit that the old order has been cast off, and that radical reconstruction is necessary if there is to be peace and safety in the future. Thousands of independent Bible scholars are convinced by prophecies fulfilled that the old world ended just on time, 1914, and that the "new heavens and a new earth," the "times of refreshing," are just at hand.

If you are interested in this vital subject and why millions now living will never die, you are cordially invited to hear

"For there shall be great tribulations, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until now (1914-1923), nor shall ever be, and except those days be shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened," and millions now living will never die.

Listen the evidence, then judge and rejoice.

"I want the statement, millions now living will never die, to be taken literally, as it is, in the light of fulfilled prophecy, a proverbial Biblical proposition."

"millions now living will never die"

—Judge Rutherford

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE"

In less than a year this proclamation has found its way into many languages and the message is being translated to millions of people in thousands of cities in every land of the earth. "Millions now living will never die!"

"Who ever heard of such a thing?" "Prophets," you will say. So said the conferees in Nuremberg they had never seen ruins—but the flood came on time. "Millions now living will never die," will enjoy unending human life on the earth and ascend a highway of righteousness to full perfection of body, of mind, of character, in company with their loved ones returned from the grave.

When the kingdom of God is fully established mankind will have no more fear of sickness or accident, old age or death; no more dread of loss of home, or loved ones or livelihood; no more sorrow or tears.

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE!"

You may be one of them. Oh! Fear the power of these most marvelous tidings. Testimony upon testimony, evidence, evidence, Biblical, historical, scientific—appealing to your reason as well as to your heart—will be presented without cost to the lecturer by

E. J. COWARD of Detroit, Mich.

"millions now living will never die"—Judge Rutherford

There is spiritual significance in the countless days through which the world has passed since 1914.

Of this event, will come greater developments, involving all nations and peoples.

The Bible accurately foretold present conditions, its prophecies regarding the future will be fulfilled with literal exactness.

The Outstanding age held forth in the Scriptures is the hope of eternal life, and the realization of this hope is now at hand.

Will he be accompanied by all the heart has hoped for—health, peace, joy, triumph.

Could purpose in giving man a revelation of his plan was that mankind should use it, understand it, and appreciate the principles it sets forth.

An understanding of the Bible foretold man's view and inspires cheerfulness and optimism.

Prophecy of all have delivered with glowing tones. The giants of the bright day that is now dawning. Hear the solemn declaration at length.

CIVILIZATION DOOMED

but—"millions now living will never die!"

Oakland Municipal Auditorium, 3 P.M. Sunday, February 15

IN A FREE LECTURE at the Oakland Municipal Auditorium, Sunday, Feb. 15, Judge Rutherford will tell the people why the greatest crisis of the ages is upon the world; why all nations are mustering their forces for the greatest conflict of all times, as foretold by the prophets of God, how that great trouble will be cut short by the Lord, and why millions now living will never die.

Some of the Great Statesmen of the World Say:

"Civilization is doomed within this generation to a catastrophe such as the world has never known."—Lloyd George.

"The United States is preparing for war that would tax us to the utmost in manpower resources."—Secretary of War Weeks.

"The war has revealed that our civilization is pagan."—Dr. Bernard I. Bell.

"We have come to the crossroads and no one knows the way out."—H. G. Wells.

"I think it is certain that if there be another such war civilization will never recover from it."—Viscount Grey.

"The future is very dark. We have reached the twilight of civilization."—Dr. H. L. Brailsford.

JUDGE RUTHERFORD says: "After centuries of laborious effort to better conditions, man's civilization is nearing complete collapse. Selfishness has gone to seed and the harvest of destruction has begun. All nations are in distress and perplexity.

"WAR has bankrupted Europe and demoralized America, yet the nations go feverishly on preparing for more war. Modern science and education have made war more diabolical and fiendish than in the days of barbarism. The modern clergy have abandoned God, the Bible, and the Prince of Peace, and sanctify war.

"CORRUPTION and official lawlessness are brazenly manifested in all nations. Profiteers, conscienceless politicians and unfaithful clergy are in an alliance to rule the world by an unholy and vicious League of Nations. The people are fleeced, robbed and oppressed. Millions are out of employment. They have lost confidence in their leaders, and are rapidly turning to Bolshevism, radicalism and anarchy.

"DISASTER stalks abroad and all nations are rushing madly to the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known.

"HOPE for the people lies in the kingdom of God now at hand. Millions are now living who will see that kingdom in operation and if obedient to its righteous laws will never die, but will live on earth forever in happiness, peace and prosperity. The world's darkest hour is just before its greatest blessing."

A FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

President of the International Bible Students' Association and Peoples' Pulpit Association, Religious Organizations Serving the People Without Money and Without Price

REALIZING the need of an exposition of the Bible uncolored by creedal interpretations, Judge Rutherford has written a book, "The Harm of God." In this book Judge Rutherford, with the scrutiny of an expert traffic-watcher, pursues an inquiry that spares no time-honored or much-reverenced opinions not founded on the Bible.

As an additional service, a course has been arranged, allowing an hour's reading weekly. Self-quiz cards and quiz questions are formed as to test the harmony of the Bible.

the heart-cheering message of Judge Rutherford during the past few months in Europe and America. Three times Royal Albert Hall, London, the greatest hall in Europe, was packed out and thousands turned away. At Magdeburg, Germany, 17,000 came. At Tacoma, Washington, 25,000; at Los Angeles, 35,000. Judge Rutherford is the only man who alone has ever filled Madison Square Garden, New York City.
